

Employee Employment Agreement, Data Privacy & HIPAA Compliance Policy

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into between Diglip ("Company") and the undersigned employee ("Employee"). This document applies to all new and existing employees, including full-time, part-time, contractual, remote, and onsite staff.

By signing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges understanding and acceptance of the terms, policies, and obligations described below.

1. Employment Relationship

- The Employee is engaged by Diglip to perform duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Company from time to time. The Company reserves the right to modify, reassign, or rotate roles and responsibilities based on business needs, operational requirements, and the Employee's skills and performance.
- Employment with Diglip is based on professionalism, trust, accountability, and compliance with company policies.
- This Agreement does not create a partnership, joint venture, or ownership interest between the Company and the Employee.

2. Confidentiality & Data Privacy Agreement

- During the course of employment, the Employee may have access to confidential, proprietary, or sensitive information including but not limited to:
 - Patient data and health records
 - Client and clinic information
 - Business processes, software, credentials, and internal systems
 - Financial, operational, and strategic data
- The Employee agrees to:
 - Maintain strict confidentiality of all such information
 - Use the information solely for authorized work purposes
 - Not disclose, copy, share, sell, or misuse any confidential data during or after employment
- This obligation continues indefinitely, even after termination or resignation.

3. HIPAA Compliance (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act)

- The Employee acknowledges that Diglip works with healthcare providers, medical laboratories, and systems that handle Protected Health Information (PHI).
 - Accessing PHI only on a need-to-know basis
 - Never sharing PHI via unauthorized channels (WhatsApp, personal email, screenshots, external storage, etc.)
 - Following secure login, password, and system access practices

- Any HIPAA violation, intentional or unintentional, may result in:
 - Immediate disciplinary action
 - Termination of employment
 - Legal consequences under applicable laws

4. Information Security & System Access

- All systems, software, emails, credentials, and tools provided by Diglip are company property.
- The Employee agrees:
 - Not to share login credentials with anyone
 - Not to access systems outside assigned permissions
 - Not to install unauthorized software or plugins
- Upon termination, all access rights will be revoked immediately.

5. Work Ethics & Professional Conduct

- The Employee is expected to:
 - Follow assigned working hours and schedules
 - Maintain honesty, integrity, and professional behavior
 - Avoid conflicts of interest
 - Respect colleagues, clients, and management
- Unauthorized absences, repeated late arrivals, or misuse of work hours may lead to disciplinary action.

6. Compensation, Salary & Tax Responsibility

- The Employee acknowledges that Diglip disburses agreed salary/compensation on a gross basis unless otherwise stated in writing.
- The Company does not deduct or submit personal income tax on behalf of the Employee, unless legally required under a specific written arrangement.
- The Employee is solely responsible for:
 - Declaring their income
 - Calculating applicable taxes
 - Filing tax returns
 - Paying any income tax or statutory dues arising from their salary or compensation
- Diglip shall not be held liable for any penalties, fines, or legal consequences arising from the Employee's failure to comply with personal tax obligations.

7. Notice Period & Termination

- Notice Period:
 - Either party must provide one (1) month written notice prior to termination or resignation.
- Diglip reserves the right to:
 - Waive the notice period
 - Pay salary in lieu of notice
 - Terminate employment immediately in cases of gross misconduct, data breach, or policy violation

DIGLIP
SMC PVT LTD

99 A3 Johartown Lahore
hello@diglip.com
+92-309-5589317

- Failure by the Employee to serve the notice period may result in:
 - Salary adjustment
 - Withholding of experience letter or final settlement

7. Return of Company Property

- Upon termination or resignation, the Employee must return:
 - Company-issued devices
 - Documents, data, credentials, and access information
 - Any copies of company or client data
- No company data may be retained in any form.

8. Intellectual Property

- 8.1 Any work, software, designs, documentation, processes, or content created during employment shall be the exclusive property of Diglip.
- 8.2 The Employee waives any ownership claims over such work.

9. Breach & Legal Action

- Any breach of this Agreement, especially related to data privacy or HIPAA compliance, may result in:
 - Immediate termination
 - Legal action
 - Financial penalties and damages as permitted by law

10. Governing Law

- This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the applicable laws of Pakistan and relevant international data protection and healthcare compliance standards where applicable.

11. Acknowledgment & Acceptance

By signing below, the Employee confirms that:

- They have read and understood this Agreement
- They agree to comply with all terms and policies
- Violation of this Agreement may result in disciplinary or legal action

Employee Details

Employee Name: _____

CNIC: _____

Designation: _____

Date of Joining: _____

Signatures

Employee Signature: _____

Date: _____

Authorized Signatory (Diglip): _____

Date: _____

COMPENSATION STRUCTURE AMENDMENT & WORKPLACE PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT POLICY

Effective Date: _____

This document serves as a formal update to the company's compensation structure and workplace conduct standards. As the company continues to serve U.S. (Texas) clients and aims to maintain international professional standards, the following policies will apply to all employees.

1. Working Hours Requirement

1. Employees are required to complete 40 working hours per week.
2. Shift-Based Working Hours:
 - a. For employees working Monday to Friday: 8 hours per day.
 - b. For employees working Monday to Saturday:
 - i. Monday to Friday: 7 hours per day
 - ii. Saturday: 5 hours
3. Office working hours must be utilized strictly for official company work.
4. Attendance and working hours will be monitored and recorded by authorized management personnel or tracking software.
5. Salary is structured based on compliance with the required weekly working hours.

2. Compensation Structure

1. The agreed monthly salary is based on completion of 40 working hours per week.
2. If an employee's total working hours fall significantly below the required weekly hours without approved leave, a proportional deduction may be applied.
3. If working hours exceed 40 hours per week due to official workload or management approval, additional compensation may be provided accordingly.
4. All deductions or additional payments will be calculated transparently.

3. Workplace Productivity & Mobile Usage Policy

1. Personal mobile phone usage during working hours is strictly prohibited unless related to official work.
2. Watching dramas, videos, social media content, or any non-work-related digital activity during office hours is not allowed.
3. Working hours must reflect active engagement in assigned tasks.
4. Any time spent on non-work-related activities during official hours may be treated as non-productive time and may be excluded from payable working hours.
5. Repeated violations may result in written warnings or disciplinary action.

4. Leave Policy (Post-Confirmation)

1. Employees are entitled to 10 paid sick/emergency leaves per year after completion of probation.
2. During probation, paid leave is not applicable (except emergency cases at management discretion).
3. Leave must be formally requested and approved.
4. Unapproved absence may result in salary deduction.

DIGLIP
SMC PVT LTD

99 A3 Johartown Lahore
hello@diglip.com
+92-309-5589317

4A. Work From Home & Emergency Work Policy

1. Work From Home (WFH) is not permitted under normal circumstances. All employees are expected to perform their duties from the company office.
2. In genuine emergency or sick cases, WFH may be allowed only with prior approval from management.
3. For approved WFH days:
 - The day will be considered a half-day for salary calculation, unless otherwise approved.
 - Active hours worked from home may be counted proportionally toward weekly working hours.
 - If actual working hours from home are below half of a normal working day, the day will be treated as unpaid leave or deducted proportionally.
4. Any unauthorized WFH (without approval) will be treated as absence, and salary for that day will not be paid.
5. Overtime performed from home requires prior management approval to be eligible for compensation

5. Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to:

1. Maintain discipline and punctuality.
2. Utilize office time responsibly.
3. Respect company standards aligned with U.S. client expectations.
4. Maintain confidentiality of company and client information.

6. Notice Period

1. Employees must provide 30 days' written notice before resignation.
2. Employees are expected to serve the full notice period.
3. Failure to serve the notice period may result in adjustment of final settlement in accordance with company policy and applicable regulations.

7. Acknowledgment

I confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to comply with the updated Compensation Structure and Workplace Conduct Policy effective from the date mentioned above.

Employee Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____